Berlin Recall (Germany)

~~May 4~~

May 4
Recall From Berlin

Since we were recalled from this raid we were unable to get a briefing so will have to write my own. We know what to expect after being alerted on Berlin, and all of the Boys were ready. We ran into quite a bit of bad weather over England which made us late getting to the Channel. We crossed the Channel and as we entered the Dutch coast we ran into some fog. It wasn't very much, but quite accurate. We went across Holland and started into Germany before being recalled. We made a 360° turn in Germany and started back. Fortunately we saw no enemy fighters and our fighter escort was very good. The flight this time didn't lose any ships. We were all glad to get a mission out of this.
