

April ⑪ 1945 - Covered 14 Km. Today Warm and sunny day. Slept outdoors for the fourth night in a row. Received one slice of bread as a day ration. We have received very little food from the Americans and if the blackbird band had any of our skin food many of us would have gotten this far.

April ⑫ - Covered 21 Km. In the morning very rainy. All our blankets and clothes completely wet. Slept in a timber house. Very cold night. One slice of bread today from them.

April ⑬ 1945 - 6th day. Covered 20 Km. along Route. Rain all day. Everyone tired and wet. Received 3 slices of bread at town of Kalmuk. Slept overnight. People very nice.
Traded for bread, butter & potatoes.
Stayed 2 hrs in town of Kalmuk.

April 22, 1945. Traveled 20 Km. Weather cold and snowed a little. Very little snow. Slept in barn. Rained all night. Received bread and soup.

April 23, 1945. Traveled 20 Km. Very cold, windy and rainy. Slept in barn. Received bread and soup.

April 24, 1945. Traveled 20 Km. Weather cold and fair. Received soup and bread.

April 25, 1945. Traveled 23 Km. to our supposedly final destination.

We were shocked as the place here is nothing but a barbed wire post with no water or barracks. Received a French P.O.W. parcel. Weather warm and fair. Traveled 23 Km. to site.

Slept out, quite cold. Received nothing from Germans.

April 29, 1945 - Weather fair and windy. Received 3/4 parcel. Feel a little better after drying clothes out and eating. Received a letter from Berners. He bread for five days now. All the boys are doing O.K.

April 30, 1945. Weather fair and warm. According to the news we could be free pretty soon. I saw an artillery barrage set on Cory. Lot of 47 and 51's shrapnel in Bransau.

May 1, 1945 Rain - cloudy.
