

Sat.

May 5, 1945, moved from forest to an aluminum airplane factory. It was raining and we walked ten kilometers to the plant. It is in good shape and has plenty of war material in it. Am receiving ration from soldiers who are taking care of us. Got a good night's sleep for a change. We are supposed to be on our way home in less than five days.

Sun.

May 6, 1945 - Factory here is two miles outside Braumau. The weather was swell today. Took a good hot bath and ate fairly well. Incidentally, ~~we~~ were liberated by the 80th Inf.

Batt. of the ~~Third~~ Army and 13th Infantry Division of the Seventh Army. These boys were in wonderful shape and there was a law among the people here. With their help have accumulated a few pennies.
All told, have been on the road twenty nine days and covered over 300 kilometers.

May 7, 1945 - Weather was beautiful. It's been swell here. Just like an army base bunkhouse, movies, Red Cross things, laundry wagons, radios and such. Receiving plenty of eat. Some of the boys are already on their way home were supposed to leave tomorrow. Wrote a 3 mail letter home.

May 8, 1945 - Another beautiful day. Suppose to leave at 11 o'clock this morning, but thought. Left at four and rode for an hour to an airfield. Slept there for the night. Received a good meal from the Army Corp.

May 9, 1945. No success today. Am on my way home took off in a C-47 at 10:30 and landed at Nure. There to hours later for gas. We are going to La Hone. Reached La Hone at 3:30 PM. Taken 30 miles to a camp. Here we are to be cleaned and fed.

pent home. I ate like a pig. Spaghetti was the first thing they fed me.
May 10, 1945

Beautiful day. Had three big square meals today and a shower. Did nothing but rest all day. It's really nice here just like an American camp back home.

May 11, 1945 Received clean clothes. Took another shower. Seen movies and O.S.O. show. Ate very good. Had a day with fresh egg yokes, malted milk, fruit juice and pancakes are given out.
Received P.X. supplies.
