V-Mail service provides a most rapid means of communication. If addressed to a place where photographing service is not available the original letter will be dispatched by the most expeditious means:

INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) Write the entire message plainly on the other side within marginal lines.
- (2) PRINT the name and address in the two spaces provided. Addresses of members of the Armed Forces should show full name, complete military or naval address, including grade or rank, serial number, unit to which assigned or attached, and Army post office in care of the appropriate postmaster or appropriate fleet post office.
- (3) Fold, seal, and deposit in any post office letter drop or street letter box.
- (4) Inclosures must not be placed in this envelope.
- (5) V-Mail letters may be sent free of postage by members of the Armed Forces. When sent by others, postage must be prepaid at domestic rates (3c ordinary mail, 6c if domestic air-mail service is desired when mailed in the U.S.)

Dear Kate:
A few words to let you know I'm doing fine and hope this letter reaches you and the family in the best of health.
I'm in France now wanting to be sent home and to visit us to long before I see you all. After being liberated I've been doing very good. I'll be seeing me now and it sure is good to be under his care again. There is a lot I would like to write but would take me days to write it. Just wanted you all to know I haven't forgotten about you and hope to see you soon. Might telephone you when I arrive in the states so look out for me. Being to close now with my best regards to you all always,
as ever
Nick
