Lt. Robert C. Baker

Robert Baker Commissioned

Receives Wings at Selman Field, La.

Lt. Robert C. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Baker, 1027 Ira avenue, received his commission and wings, Saturday, May 20, at Selman Field, Monroe, La.

He had graduated from the army air forces flexible gunnery school, Fort Myers, Fla., before beginning his training at Selman Field. Before entering the service he was a student at Western Michigan College.

Upon graduation, the AAF Central Flying Training Command, under whose direct supervision these aerial navigators trained for combat, released most of them to the tactical air forces for action in all theatres of war.
